

Bylaw 10. The Honours Board

INTRODUCTION

Under the Constitution of the Photographic Society of New Zealand Inc. (PSNZ) the Executive Officers have been given the power to create and set Bylaws that are applicable to the description of specific events, activities, jobs, portfolios and/or publications that fall within the operations of the Society.

Objectives of this ByLaw

This Bylaw is intended to outline the purpose and jurisdiction given to the Honours Board for the conduct of managing the assessments and granting of the PSNZ Honours distinctions and Service Awards.

1. Management

- (a) The PSNZ Council has the power to appoint members to the Honours Board (referred to as the "Board"). The Board has the power to recommend to Council to grant the appropriate honour distinction in recognition of the member's photographic ability and competency in one of the genres of photography of the arts and/or science.
- (b) The Board also has the power to recommend to Council to grant the appropriate Service Award to members in recognition of their service to photography and/or the Society.
- (c) The Honours Board will consist of six voting members only and an administrative Secretary.
- (d) At the first Council meeting following the AGM, the Council shall make appointments to fill the/any vacancy on the Board, whether caused by retirement or otherwise. The retiring member(s) shall be eligible for re-appointment if in agreement. The Board may make recommendations to the President in this matter.
- (e) Each member is appointed for a term of three years, which may be renewed for a further three year term. The longest servicing member(s) of the Board shall retire following the Annual General Meeting (AGM). If there are any discrepancies as to who are the longest standing members, the final decision will be made by the President of the Society.

- (f) The Council shall, when appointing an Honours Board follow the points in the current Bylaw 10, which governs the types of honours and awards, procedure and policy to be followed by the Honours Board in considering and granting them.
 - (g) The appointment of the Secretary of the Honours Board is approved by the PSNZ Council. The duties of the secretary include administrative and organisational activities to ensure the smooth operation of the Board. A service fee (honorarium) is payable to the Secretary upon the recommendation by the Board to the President, and approved by Council.

2. Powers and Procedure of the Board

- (a) The Board shall elect a Chairman from among its own members.
- (b) The President of the Society is an ex-officio member of the Board.
- (c) The responsibilities of the Board Chairman is to Chair all Board meetings; to liaise with Council through the President; report to Council following the Honours assessments and before the National Convention Council meeting; to work with the Honours Board Secretary to facilitate the smooth and efficient management of the Honours system.
- (d) The Board may not delegate any of its powers or co-opt anyone to assist in the carrying out of its duties. It may however co-opt a specialist photographer to sit in at the judging of an entry in the Nature, Natural History section, or the Scientific and Technical section. Any person so co-opted shall be entitled to make comments on the entry, but shall not be entitled to vote.
- (e) In the event that any Board member is unable to carry out their duties the Chairman shall immediately notify the President. Council, via the President will then appoint a temporary replacement for the member for the duration of their unavailability.
- (f) The decision of the Board in the recommendation or rejection of applications/nominations for an Honours distinction or Service Award is final.
- (g) Notwithstanding that the decision of the Board is final, the Board will make every endeavour to provide feedback to unsuccessful applicants.

The exception to the above is the recommendation for Honorary Life Membership and Honorary Fellowship where the Chairman has certified that the requisite majority to recommend the Service Award has been passed.
- (h) The Board shall determine its policy in the issuing of Honours and Awards in accordance with the aims and purposes of the Society. It shall be compliant for the Board to recommend to Council from time to time, changes to the policies, practices, rules and regulations governing the establishment and awarding of Honours and Awards.

After approval by Council, Bylaw 10 shall be updated where necessary by the Executive Officers. Such changes will be communicated to the Honours Board

Secretary; updates made to the PSNZ website relating to the Honours and Honours Guidelines, and communicated to PSNZ members.

- (i) The Board shall determine what information it requires from applicants for Honours distinctions and proposers for Service Awards and prepare the respective forms in the prescribed paper format and/or electronic medium, on which the applications and nominations are to be made.
- (j) Members of the Honours Board may not bestow Honours upon themselves.
- (k) The policies and practices of the Board may not operate to prevent any member of the Society from nominating for Honours or Awards any other member in accordance with this Bylaw.
- (l) The business of the Board may be conducted by email correspondence or by using online meeting platforms, as well as formal meeting.
- (m) Voting: Members of the Honours Board will vote anonymously. Where split votes (3:3) occur a full discussion of Board members precedes a second vote. A negative 5:1 vote is not reviewed unless one member specifically requests a review. In a negative 4:2 vote, the minority is asked to comment.
- (n) The President of the Society may be present as an observer of the judging process, but shall not take part in the deliberations on photographic honours distinctions. When discussing Service Awards, the President may be present at the meeting and contribute to the discussion in an advisory role.
- (o) The President may contribute to discussion regarding the operations and management of the Honours Board, particularly in relationship with the Council. The President will convey suggestions or alternative initiatives from members to the Honours Board Chairman for presentation to the Board.
- (p) Where appropriate the President will work with the Board to progress any agreed enhancements or initiatives relating to the Honours Award system.
- (q) All decisions of the Board shall be conveyed to Council through the President.
- (r) All records of applications for Honours distinctions and nominations for Service Awards will be retained by the Honours Board Secretary, for a period of five years, after which time they will be destroyed.
- (s) Following the annual Honours assessments the Board Chairman shall submit a report of its activities to Council through the President, before the next Annual General Meeting.
- (t) All applications and nominations for Honours distinctions and Service Awards shall be made on the forms made available on the PSNZ website and shall contain all the information the Board requires. Failure to comply with the Board's requirements may jeopardise the award of an Honour distinction or Service Award.
- (u) The closing date for the receipt of the applications for Honours distinctions and nominations for Service Awards shall be a date in each year as determined by the Board. Any applications and nominations received after that date will NOT be accepted. These may be re-submitted the following year.

- (v) The Board may, in exceptional circumstances and after discussion with the President, waive any of its specific requirements when such waiver is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Society and its policies.
- (w) All awards shall be presented and published in a manner and at such times as Council may from time to time direct.
- (x) No member of the Board shall be present at any meeting of the Council when any question relating to the Board or Honours is to be discussed. However the Chairman of the Honours Board may be invited to attend and contribute to a Council meeting during discussion of Honours Board matters. If requested by Council to do so. The Honours Board Chairman shall not be present when voting on Honours Board matters is taken by Council.
- (y) Certificates will be issued to each recipient of an Honours distinction and Service Awards. These shall be duly signed by the President of the Society and the Chairman of the Honours Board.
- (z) Where possible certificates of Honours and Service Awards shall be presented at the annual PSNZ - CR Kennedy Honours Banquet held during the national convention, or at an alternative function organised by PSNZ specifically for that purpose.

If the PSNZ Patron is attendance at the event they will present the certificates with the names announced by the President of the Society. If the Patron is not present then the certificates will be presented by a suitable person selected by the President.

1. Privileges of Honours Distinctions and Service Awards
